Unit II: Aloha Kekahi i Kekahi—Love, Care, & Concern for Each Other
Name _________________________________________________  Date ______________

Reflections about R – E – S – P – E – C - T

• My definition of respect (What it means to me; what it looks like, sounds like, and feels like):

____________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________

• Two people who I highly respect and why I feel that way:
  1. __________________________________________________________________
  2. __________________________________________________________________

• An environmental or social issue I’m concerned about that shows a lack of respect:

____________________________________________________________________

• Ways I show respect to both people and places:
  1. __________________________________________________________________
  2. __________________________________________________________________
  3. __________________________________________________________________
UNIT 2 ‘Ōlelo No‘eau

Mohala i ka wai ka maka o ka ‘ōpua

Translation:
Unfolded by the water are the faces of the flowers.

Manaʻo:
Flowers thrive where there is water, as thriving people are found where living conditions are good.