Observations
Record the changes you see in your column. Make sure to include color, smell, texture and size when describing the different layers that you see.