ABILITIES AT WORK

Abilities at Work features four stories of Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders with disabilities who have successful lives and careers. Produced by the University of Hawaii's NTAC-AAPI (National Technical Assistance Center) Abilities at Work highlights the careers of Jennifer who works in the field of the Hotel restaurant business, Dr. Francis Liu a retired physician specializing in infectious diseases, Cavin a outreach community educator and Dara an account executive in Community Relations. All four real-life stories reveal challenges and reasonable accommodations that come with hiring a person with a disability.

FILM SHORTS

TALK United Kingdom

The award-winning Talk short film by David Mansell challenges common preconceptions of disability in an interesting and provocative way.

Thumbs Down to Pity – United States

Award winning short by Benjamin Snow an acerbic and humorous request to Hollywood media-makers to excise this emotion from their disability treatments.
