

Center on Disability Studies Hits the Airwaves

The Center on Disability Studies, as part of its 20th Anniversary Activities has launched a monthly community television program called Disability Perspectives, which airs on OLELO, Channel 54.

The 12 segment series will combine documentary and magazine style formats with specific topic features in each one hour episode. Episodes include conversations on work and self employment, cultural and special education initiatives, human rights, disability culture, and other issues important to our communities. Also showcased will be videos produced by the CDS.

Air Times:

Every Friday in September
at 6 PM on Channel 54

Disability Perspectives welcomes ideas for content. If you have a video you would like to present or an issue you want discussed, please email cccrocke@hawaii.edu.

Episode Three (September): STORIES OF SELF-ADVOCACY

Living with Choice, Flexibility and Control (2006) Produced by Jim Skouge and Kevin Dierks. A consumer directed documentary which gives voice to self advocates and their families. The message: A world of possibilities opens up when we support each other in our dreams. Don't miss this inspirational and riveting video.
