

Center on Disability Studies Hits the Airwaves

The Center on Disability Studies, as part of its 20th Anniversary Activities has launched a monthly community television program called Disability Perspectives, which airs on OLELO, Channel 54.

The 12 segment series will combine documentary and magazine style formats with specific topic features in each one hour episode. Episodes include conversations on work and self employment, cultural and special education initiatives, human rights, disability culture, and other issues important to our communities. Also showcased will be videos produced by the CDS.

Air Times:

Every Friday in October
at 6 PM (HST) on Channel 54

Disability Perspectives welcomes ideas for content. If you have a video you would like to present or an issue you want discussed, please email cccrocke@hawaii.edu.

Episode Three (October): DISABILITY CULTURE

Lively discussion on disability rights, art, literature and esoterica with Steve Brown, Lillian Gonzales-Brown, and Matthew Kaleiali'i Kaopio.

Watch live on the Web at:
www.olelo.org (Click on Views 54).

Don't miss this inspirational and informative talk show!

