

Center on Disability Studies Hits the Airwaves

The Center on Disability Studies (CDS), as part of its 20th Anniversary Activities has launched a monthly community television program called Disability Perspectives, airing on OLELO Channel 54.

The 12 segment series will combine documentary and magazine style formats with specific topic features in each one hour episode. Episodes include conversations on work and self employment, cultural and special education initiatives, human rights, disability culture, and other issues important to our communities. Also showcased will be videos produced by the CDS.

Air Times:

Every Friday in February at
6 PM (HST) on Channel 54
Or watch live on the web at www.olelo.org (click on Views 54)

Disability Perspectives welcomes ideas for content. If you have a video you would like to present or an issue you want discussed, please email cccrocke@hawaii.edu.

Episode Seven (February):

Join An Hour Apart with Megan A. Conway, Ph.D., an Assistant Professor at the CDS and an Associate Faculty member with the Dept of Special Education, UHM. She serves as a core faculty member for CDS's Disability and Diversity Certificate Program. Dr. Conway received her doctorate from the Univ. of California, Berkeley. While at Berkeley, she became increasingly aware of the problems facing individuals with disabilities as they pursue higher education, leading to her interest in improving postsecondary options and supports for individuals with disabilities.

Pacific Voices and Jim Skouge produce "An Hour Apart," an interview series hosted by Steve Brown with esteemed faculty and other guests. Don't miss this inspirational and informative talk show!

Disability Perspectives Production Team: Sara Banks, Charmaine Crockett, Dalen Kahiapo.