

Catch the Center on Disability Studies on the Airwaves!

The Center on Disability Studies, as part of its outreach initiative, produces a monthly community television program called Disability Perspectives airing on OLELO Channel 54.

The segment series combines documentary and magazine style formats with specific topic features in each one hour episode. Episodes include conversations on work and self employment, cultural and special education initiatives, human rights, disability culture, and other issues important to our communities. Also showcased will be videos produced by the CDS.

Air Times:

Every Friday in August at 6 PM (HST) on Channel 54

Or watch live on the web at www.olelo.org (click on Views 54)

Disability Perspectives welcomes ideas for content. If you have a video you would like to present or an issue you want discussed, please email cccrocke@hawaii.edu.

Episode Thirteen (August):

A Dialogue on Culturally Relevant Education

Hear Herb Lee, Executive Director, Pacific American American Foundation; Ka'oi Kaimikaua, cultural specialist, Alu Like; Meleanna Aluli Meyer, Artist, educator, Filmmaker discuss indigenous knowledge, pedagogies, sustainable futures, culture and visions for education.

Don't miss this inspirational and informative talk show!

Disability Perspectives Production Team: Sara Banks, Charmaine Crockett, Dalen Kahiapo.