

Center on Disability Studies Hits the Airwaves

The Center on Disability Studies, as part of its 20th Anniversary Activities has launched a monthly community television program called Disability Perspectives, which airs on OLELO, Channel 54.

The 12 segment series will combine documentary and magazine style formats with specific topic features in each one hour episode. Episodes include conversations on work and self employment, cultural and special education initiatives, human rights, disability culture, and other issues important to our communities. Also showcased will be videos produced by the CDS.

Air Times:

Every Friday in December
at 6 PM (HST) on Channel 54
Or watch live on the web at www.olelo.org (click on Views 54)

Disability Perspectives welcomes ideas for content. If you have a video you would like to present or an issue you want discussed, please email cccrocke@hawaii.edu.

Episode Five (December):

AN HOUR APART

Join Disability Perspectives for an inspiring hour with Lynne Sadler of Foundation for Blind. Steve Brown, host of "An Hour Apart" interviewed Lynne in the Pacific Voices studio on the University of Hawaii campus.

Pacific Voices and Jim Skouge produced "An Hour Apart," an interview series with esteemed faculty and other guests. Watch it all on Disability Perspectives.

Don't miss this inspirational and informative talk show!

Disability Perspectives Production
Team: Sara Banks, Charmaine
Crockett, Dalen Kahiapo.