

Center on Disability Studies Hits the Airwaves!

In 2007, the Center on Disability Studies, as part of its community outreach initiative launched a monthly community television program called Disability Perspectives, which airs on OLELO, Channel 54.

The segment series combines documentary and magazine style formats with specific topic features in each one hour episode. Episodes include conversations on work and self employment, cultural and special education initiatives, human rights, disability culture, and other issues important to our communities. Also showcased will be videos produced by the CDS.

Air Times:

Every Friday in June
at 6 PM (HST) on Channel 54
Or watch live on the web at Disability Perspectives welcomes ideas for content. If you have a video you would like to present or an issue you want discussed, please email cccrocke@hawaii.edu.

Episode Eleven (June):

A Focus on the Pacific Region

A Pacific Voices Production

The show describes the work of the Center of Disability Studies "Related Services" projects in Micronesia and American Samoa. The program is co-hosted by Dr. Kathy Ratliffe and Dr. Jim Skouge. It includes many examples of "low technologies" to support inclusion on Pacific Islands, utilizing local materials and creativity.
