

Center on Disability Studies Hits the Airwaves

The Center on Disability Studies, as part of its 20th Anniversary Activities has launched a monthly community television program called Disability Perspectives, which airs on OLELO, Channel 54.

The 12 segment series will combine documentary and magazine style formats with specific topic features in each one hour episode. Episodes include conversations on work and self employment, cultural and special education initiatives, human rights, disability culture, and other issues important to our communities. Also showcased will be videos produced by the CDS.

Air Times:

Every Friday in November
at 6 PM (HST) on Channel 54
Or watch live on the web at www.olelo.org (click on Views 54)

Disability Perspectives welcomes ideas for content. If you have a video you would like to present or an issue you want discussed, please email cccrocke@hawaii.edu.

Episode Four (November):

AN HOUR APART

Join us for an hour with dancer, healer and artist Shannon Simonelli. Shannon shares her personal experiences growing up as a student in Hawai'i and as an educator today. Steve Brown, host of "An Hour Apart" interviewed Shannon in the Pacific Voices studio on the University of Hawaii campus. Pacific Voices and Jim Skouge produced "An Hour Apart," an interview series with esteemed faculty and other guests. Watch it all on Disability Perspectives.
