

Catch the Center on Disability Studies on the Airwaves!

The Center on Disability Studies, as part of its outreach initiative, produces a monthly community television program called Disability Perspectives airing on OLELO Channel 54.

The segment series combines documentary and magazine style formats with specific topic features in each one hour episode. Episodes include conversations on work and self employment, cultural and special education initiatives, human rights, disability culture, and other issues important to our communities. Also showcased will be videos produced by the CDS.

Air Times:

Every Friday in September at 6 PM (HST) on Channel 54
Or watch live on the web at www.olelo.org (click on Views 54)

Disability Perspectives welcomes ideas for content. If you have a video you would like to present or an issue you want discussed, please email cccrocke@hawaii.edu.

Disability Perspectives Production Team: Sara Banks, Charmaine Crockett, Dalen Kahiapo.

Episode Fourteen (Sept): Live Healthy... Work Well with Diabetes

Hear Rebecca Rude Ozaki, Project Director of Live Healthy...Work Well; Majken Mechling, Executive Director of the American Diabetes Association in Hawaii; Wanya Ogata, Director of Corporate Health & Wellness at Hawaiian Electric Company; and Cindy Minakami, Certified Diabetes Educator & Pharmacist at Longs Drugs Stores, discuss diabetes and it's impact in Hawaii. Also hear about diabetes from an employer perspective, learn about free services for people with diabetes, as well as diabetes questions answered by a diabetes expert.

