My Voice, My Choice
Center on Disability Studies
University of Hawai‘i

Jean Johnson, DrPH
Principal Investigator

Trí Kai Minh Lê, MEd
Youth Coordinator (Acting)
Management Team

PI
Jean Johnson

SCDD
Waynette Cabral
State Council
On Developmental Disabilities

HDRC
Gary Smith
Hawaiʻi
Disability
Rights
Center

SAAC
Joey Lakin
Self-Advocacy
Advisory Council

CDS-UH
Jean Johnson
Center on Disability
Studies

Youth Coordinator (Acting)
Trí Kai Minh Lê
Support Self-advocacy Efforts and Infuse a Youth Component

- Collaborate to develop a unified, holistic self-advocacy team
- Support the Self-Advocacy Advisory Committee
- Create and monitor the “Ask an Advocate” website
- Initiate advocacy for sustainability in Years 2 and 3
- Address cultural sensitivity and awareness in all activities
Personal Career Plan

• Identify the most promising youth and enhance their capacity to be effective future leaders
• Identify the strengths and Dreams of these youth and outlining a vision for accomplishing those Dreams in a sequential process (e.g. 1 yr, 5 yr.)
• Identify additional educational goals, specific training, access to assistive technology, other community resources, and supports
• Personal Career Plans evolve into the actualization of “My Voice, My Choice”